If accepted for a position at Windsor Hills, I hereby agree to abide by the rules of the camp and to adhere to the standards of conduct set for the staff. I also understand that no smoking, alcohol, illegal drugs, weapons of any type or profanity will be allowed in camp and that dress will be modest as becomes a Christian, defined by the camp executive director. I understand that in any given week, the kitchen staff is populated first, and that maintenance positions become available after that.
